Biographical Data:

Xsaar is a 43 feet sailing yacht that has been participating in The Tall Ships Races since 2006.

Spirit of Sailing, the owner, is a chartering company that apart from running private and corporate charters also promotes sail training to young people. In participating in The Tall Ships Races we are able to offer exciting sailing trips for a lower budget.

The RYA certified skipper has logged over 30,000 miles on Xsaar in 3 years. Most of it was sailing in European waters from north to south, including the Mediterranean.

This year Xsaar will sail 12,500 miles during her participation in the Tall Ships Atlantic Challenge 2009, and several other trips around Europe. We are a Belgian based company that operates from Portugal in Cascais, Lisbon, where exciting Atlantic sailing can be achieved in very enjoyable conditions. This makes sailing all year long a very pleasant experience!
